final

columbia bible college

volume xxix 1968
columbia, south carolina

all to the glory of God with pride, with arrogance, with power with love, with poverty, with meekness they came to babel

He came to earth

to make a name for man to glorify the Father

they built unto themselves a tower He called unto God a people a tower built by their might, for their glory a people weak and not mighty that they might not be forgotten that God might have the greater glory thus they climbed—and we all with them thus He descended—becoming one of us they, to the heights of degradation He, to the depths of exaltation *the distinguishing trait of Columbia Bible College is the example we follow. having rejected the way of babel, we seek to follow the way of our Saviour, Christ Jesus

in giving glory to God. it is this effort which

dedication

as director for men's christian service, mr. petty supervises over 200 men in their weekly christian service.

the glory of God is not completely, nor even primarily, accomplished in the knowing of Him. rather, it is in the making known through the witness of words and deeds that He is glorified.

if the rest of our faculty is involved in leading us to have that basic knowledge of God, mr. petty is involved in our imparting that knowledge to others. for this reason we dedicate final '68 to mr. thomas m. petty.

dost
thou
remember
thy quaker
childhood?*

m petty*

after graduating from asbury college, mr. petty was headmaster of pineville school.

"by the way, have you guys seen the new tev?"

administration

dear students:
the wonder of living for the glory of God was made more real to me through a public figure who gave this reason for a decision, "i love myself too much for that." how wonderfully different to do all "because the love of Christ constraineth me."

*to do all to the glory of God is wonderful for the Lord. only about God can it be said, "worthy art Thou to receive the glory."
 it is good that our God receives that which belongs to Him.*

to live unto Him is good for those we seek to win. nothing is as repulsive to another as one who "seeks his own and not the things of Jesus Christ." how "meet for the Master's use" is one who is living for the glory of God."

to live for Christ is also good for the individual. since God created man for this, he does not function normally until he lives for something outside himself. how good it is for him to live for the only worthy cause, his Creator and Redeemer.

how rich are those who know Him, "Who died for all, that they that live should no longer live unto themselves but unto Him."
